

He was so much refreshed with the night's repose, that rising early the next morning, he thought himself equal to every undertaking, so forgetting Miss Patient, and Reason, he proceeded with the greatest swiftness on his journey. It was not long before he arrived at a place where he found these words written in gold letters, THIS IS THE ROAD TO FAME AND HAPPINESS.

He was transported with joy at seeing this, and resolved to follow the track, which led him to the foot of a high rock, on the top of which he saw a most pompous building.
